

New website promises quick and secure insurance purchases – www.jcbinsurance.com

A new website has been launched by JCB Insurance Services - www.jcbinsurance.com - to help companies buy their insurance quickly and securely online.

The site offers a wide range of insurance products including 'all risks' plant insurance and hired-in plant insurance, both with optional road risks' cover and extensions. Also offered online is public liability and employers' liability insurance specifically designed for plant hirers, groundworks contractors and civil engineering contractors with exclusive features such as an eight metre depth limit. There is also the option to spread the payments using a secure direct debit payment system.

Michael Gregory, Director and General Manager said: "Our new website was developed with our customers firmly in mind. It aims to take care of the insurance needs a large number of companies quickly, easily and securely. We have however made sure that there is full support from our Head Office team for customers who still prefer to speak to someone about their quote before buying insurance online."

Exclusive to JCB Insurance, Hiremaster short term hired in plant insurance has been refreshed and is also available to purchase up to 30 days cover online and for the first time,

JCB Insurance, partnering with Autonet, the UK's largest van insurance broker, is able to offer van and pick up insurance for customers to buy online at extremely competitive prices.

As an insurance Broker recommended by the Contractors Plant Association (CPA), JCB Insurance has work closely with the industry to ensure the new website gives customers the insurance products they need as quickly and simply as possible. The new website also offers customers the flexibility to retrieve and update quotes before they buy through a secure customer login where all their quotes and policy documents can be safely stored until they are needed.

The new website is supported by JCB Insurance head office team who are on hand to answer any queries customers might have before they commit to buying their insurance online thus ensuring that the personal service JCB is renowned for, is not lost.
